

Ohio Pork Council Ambassador Team

Application

APPLICATIONS DUE BY March 31, 2018

The Ohio Pork Council Ambassador Team serves as an opportunity for qualified youth to act as a voice for the Ohio Pork Industry. It is the goal of the Ohio Pork Council Ambassador Team program to educate ambassadors about the pork industry so that they may better share their own agricultural-based story, including their background and experiences. Team members will be involved in educating consumers on topics such as food safety, nutrition, and animal care practices of the pork industry. Promotion of the Ohio Pork Industry shall be carried out as a team, through the development of skills in self-confidence, communication, leadership, and teamwork.

Requirements

- Applicants must be 17-21 years of age as of January 1, 2018.
- Applicants must fill out and return this application form to Kelly Morgan of the Ohio Pork Council via e-mail or U.S. mail (mailing information noted at bottom of page).
- Applicants should have an expressed interest in the pork industry.
- Selected team members may not serve as an ambassador for another competitive commodity group while serving their one-year term as an Ohio Pork Ambassador.
- Selected team members must attend a training session and various industry related events. (These topics will be communicated to selected applicants at a later time.)

Please type or legibly handwrite your responses to all fields on this application form.
